Treasurer Davis Appoints Shareese Churchill as Deputy Treasurer for Communications and Public Affairs

ANNAPOLIS, MD (August 29, 2022) – Treasurer Dereck E. Davis today announced that he has appointed Shareese Churchill as Deputy Treasurer for Communications and Public Affairs. Churchill is currently the Deputy Director of Interagency Affairs for Governor Larry Hogan. Churchill has been with the Hogan Administration since January 2015, when she was appointed press secretary.

"I am thrilled to have Shareese Churchill join the office as Deputy Treasurer for Communications and Public Affairs," said Treasurer Davis. "She brings a wealth of knowledge and understanding of state government, and I look forward to her leading the office's efforts to be as communicative and transparent as possible."

In her new capacity, Churchill will help elevate the Maryland State Treasurer's Office and support its wide-ranging responsibilities. Additionally, Churchill will work closely with stakeholders to ensure the business of the office is communicated transparently and effectively to Maryland citizens.

"Shareese has been an integral part of our communications team since day one of our Administration in 2015," said Governor Hogan. "Although the Treasurer's Office is just across the street, Shareese will be greatly missed here in the State House. I wish her all the best in her future endeavors as she continues to serve the people of our great state."

"It has been an incredible honor to work alongside Governor Hogan and represent the Administration for the past seven and a half years," said Churchill. "I am excited to work with Treasurer Davis and the dedicated staff at the Maryland State Treasurer’s Office and look forward to continuing to serve the people of Maryland.”

Churchill will begin in her new role on September 7.
